

THAI-OWNED BRAND

SATIEN STAINLESS STEEL PUBLIC COMPANY LIMITED

In 1966 Mr. Satien Youngvanich began his career of welding commercial stainless steel freezer and kitchenware for various hotels and airlines under the name of "Shoom Silp Industries Limited Partnership", struck by scrap left from the welding. He developed a creative idea to utilize the scrap also to improvement the quality of spoon in that day, and the initiative to improve the process of his welding into industry mass production. He, thereby, began to produce the "stainless steel spoon", which was the first production of Zebra in 1968. Satien Stainless Steel Public Company Limited was the first manufacturer in Thailand of stainless steel kitchenware in response to the modernization and expansion of manufacturing industry, the factory was move from Sathupradit Road (1¹/₂ Rais) to Ladkrabang Road (38 Rais) in 1975. Finally, in 1988, the factory move to Rayong province which covered the area of more than 100 Rais, under the promotion of the Board of Investment (BOI.)The company never stop to improved and developed its production technology. Presently, Satien Stainless Steel Public Company Limited has with it 200 Million Baht registered capital, 770 personnel and more than 1,500 categories of products. Our factory is one of the most advance hi-tech factory in Asia, which has been certified of international standard of quality, ISO 9001:2000, BY TÜV Rheinland, Germany.

Satien Stainless Steel Public Company Limited

24 Srinakarin Road, Nongbon, Pravet, Bangkok 10250 Thailand

Tel : (662) 720 5959

Fax : (662) 720 5858

E-mail : zebra@zebra-head.com

www.zebra-head.com